

Cesar Campuzano

December 27, 1997 - June 6, 2013

Cesar Campuzano Cesar Campuzano of Newberg, Oregon passed away on June 6, 2013 at a medical facility in Portland. He was 15 years old. He was born to Cesar and Maria Campuzano on December 27, 1997 in Portland, Oregon. Cesar was a very well known teen in the community of Newberg. He was a 9th grade student at Newberg High School, home of the “Tigers”. Cesar also attended a local church. Everybody that knew him or had met him was touched in a very special way. He was known to be very strong-willed, adventurous and curious. He was also a great dancer, a singer, a humorist and helpful. Those who knew Cesar say “he was there for them” and most of all, he was a wonderful friend. Cesar also loved attending family functions or events in the community of Newberg. Cesar’s hopes and dreams were to one day join the military and attend a good college to help out his family one day, and to be a good role model to his younger siblings. Cesar was a teen full of life and happiness, a wonderful son and brother to his family. Cesar will be deeply missed by his family and friends that love him so dearly. It was an honor to his family that they got to have him for 15 beautiful years of life and memories. Cesar is now with our Lord and in the company of family members that have gone before him. Cesar is survived by his Father Cesar, Mother Maria, brothers Christofer, Jimmy and Andre Campuzano of Newberg. The Campuzano family would like to say “thank you” to the community of Newberg and others for all their help with Cesar’s memorial funds. There are no words to describe from the bottom of their hearts how grateful they are that the community has opened their hearts to help out. Thank you and God bless you all. “Enjoy life to the fullest” ... Cesar Campuzano quote.
