“ Linda Cochran Nelson lit a candle in memory of Elmer F. Baron

“ It was August 71 when I traveled to Oregon as an AFS student and I met my lovely American family. Love hasn't stopped since then. Dad (Elmer) was the most beautiful American dad I could ask for. I still remember the way he blessed the food before us at dinner time using old English and I will always treasure dad's advice on making my faith in Jesus stronger and praying to Him for everyday situations. I love the way he and his whole family has been blessed. I am so thankful I became part of it.
