“ I first met Jeff about 10 years ago through a joint Oregon State Bar Assn. and Oregon Banker's Association committee. Since then, we have worked together on several joint committees. When I referred a client to him, after meeting the client, he sent me a handwritten thank you note. How classy is that? That was Jeff. Always appreciative and thankful. You are a class act, Jeff and will truly be missed.

“ Jeff and I were friends for about 12 years. He worked in our firm running our Portland office. He was a first rate attorney and a fine man, with a wonderful sense of humor, super high integrity, very caring about his clients, a colleague of highest caliber. I could always count on Jeff and he always greeted me with a big smile.

Jeff, you will be missed by everyone who knew you. Rest in peace my friend.

“ I have always thought one of the highest tributes one lawyer could pay to another lawyer is to say he or she was "a lawyer's lawyer." Jeff was a lawyer's lawyer. I had the privilege to get to know and work with Jeff over a period of years, mostly on legislative issues. He was insightful, kind, funny, generous of his time, and always willing to serve. His knowledge of and love for the law was apparent in every interaction I had with him. He was a friend and comrade in arms, and I will miss him.

“ Although I didn't know Jeff well, as a newer member of the Bar, I always appreciated his willingness to help the Bar as a whole and that he took the time from his busy schedule to discuss a few matters with me over the phone. He was intelligent and caring and his presence will be missed.
