“ Doug, Gary and I just found out about Nancy. Our hearts are breaking for you and the boys, Tony, Teddy and Casey. Life seems to pass us by in a moment. As Carol (Field) said, she was a fragile soul. We have so many happy memories with the entire family. Although we also lost touch, we will love you all forever. Doug, Gary and I talk about who will go first and then cry at the thought. Tony, Teddy and Casey, losing your Mom will be one of the hardest times in your lives. Please know that Gary and I will be thinking of you always.

Love and Peace,
Gary and Linda Reiswig

“ Uncle Doug, and my cousins Tony, Ted, and Casey: My wife (Erin) and I are so sorry that we were unable to attend the celebration of life. I know that Aunt Nancy is with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

The memories that I cherish the most, and will remember forever, is on the holidays of Thanksgiving and Christmas at Grandpa and Grandma's farm house. When Linda (Mom), Grandma, Aunt Debbie Lee, Aunt Nancy, and the other women in the family would start to giggle and laugh. The laugh of Aunt Nancy was so contagious that it would make other people start to laugh and we had no idea why. She was so happy and funny. I will miss her so much.

Love to all,

Rob and Erin Rickert

“ Ok, I'll go first. You were always Nancy Sue to me. I met you in 1973 and barely knew you when we stood before that quirky little person in Seattle when you exchanged vows with Doug almost 42 years ago. You were the absolute best friend before there ever was such a thing as BFF's. I am sick that we lost each other as our lives took different paths. But I never forgot all the wonderful fun times we had, your laugh and your absolute love of family. Rest in peace my delicate friend. I'll see you when I get there.
