“ To All Who Knew and Loved Her, She does sound like a truly special and rare person that was and is loved by all that knew her. I know how hard it is to lose someone we love so much. My own father passed away just a few short years ago and sometimes it seems like it was just yesterday. I would like to share a scripture with you that helped me in my time of grief, it is 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 where it refers to God as “the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our trials so that we may be able to comfort others in any sort of trial with the comfort that we receive from God.” And one of the best is a promise that God will do away with death forever and it is found in Revelation 21:4 where it says “And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.” With a promise like that and other ones of a resurrection for everyone to right here on earth with us, it makes the grief a little easier to bear. I would be more than happy to share those with you, if you would like or you can also go to jw.org and type "resurrection" into the search box and get the information on your own. Please except my sincerest condolences,

“ I am very sorry for your loss. I hope you may find comfort at Revelation 21:4, “And he (God) will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.” We can look forward to the time when God will take away all reasons for distress and he even gives us a hope of a resurrection. (John 5:28, 29)

I am stunned by her loss and cannot imagine the pain you are experiencing. I was looking forward to her spending her last semester with me in the clinic. Deborah Lastinger

“ I will always remember Paula as fun loving and creative. We shared a lot of crazy times at Grandma's house when we were children. Once we were goofing around and opened the car door while my dad was driving. He somehow managed to reach across and catch us before we fell out. She was one of the most sensitive and loving people I've ever known. Our thoughts and prayers are with you, and we pray you find comfort in your memories.

“ Joe and I are so very sorry for your lose. Joe had the opportunity to meet Paula at Christmas events with her loving husband John and infinity employees. Joe said she was so nice and vibrant. Makes me jealous I didn't meet such a gorgeous young lady. Our prayers and the loving sunshine of Paula Meyers will brighten heaven with her beautiful smile. Sincerely, Joe Avendano and Sabrina Barclay

“ I didn't really keep in touch with Paula after moving to Texas during college, but always enjoyed her laugh and smile while we were growing up. That last few years of high school there was a small gang of us that would hang out together and Paula was a special part of that. I am sure she continued to be that special person while she was here on earth. My prayers and thoughts go out to all the family and friends whom Paula's footsteps had touched in their hearts.

“ I want to say how sorry I am for your loss. I've always enjoyed having your family as customers, we all have at Roses. We would often say how much we like all of you after you left, especially Paula with her sense of humor. I admired Paula for her career, her comfortable interactions with her kids at the table and her friendliness towards us. I really liked her a lot and she will be missed.
