

Richard "Rick" E. Gorman

September 24, 1944 - November 13, 2016

Rick was born in Boone, Iowa to Charles and Geneva Gorman. He suffered a massive stroke, was hospitalized for 11 days, and passed away on 11/13/2016. There will be no Funeral Service, but friends/family will gather at Rick and Nancy's to toast his life later.

Rick is survived by his wife Nancy. They were married on May 13, 1972 in Estherville, IA. They have been married for 44 years to each other. He is also survived by a brother, who lives in Annapolis, MD; and a sister Linda, who lives in Urbandale, Iowa. He is also survived by a daughter, Jeannie, who lives in Arvada, CO. He is also survived by many family members, nieces and nephews and cousins. He was preceded in death by his parents, Charles and Geneva Gorman. He had special neighbors and friends.

He had many friends that he met while on vacation in SXM from all over the world. He loved the warm water and lounging in the sun. He enjoyed his wine tours in the Oregon wine country and loved his French Rose'.

Rick was in the Army and served in Vietnam. Rick loved being outside, hunting, fishing, gardening, and enjoyed visiting with his knife making buddies and Army buddy. He was a Salesman (with many lines to sell and jokes). He had a great sense of humor and had a wonderful smile.

No flowers please. Just remember Rick the next time you make a toast and remember the good times.

Comments

“ A tribute video has been added.

Attrell's Newberg Funeral Chapel - December 28, 2016 at 05:28 PM

“ Rick, I will miss you and your smile. Love, Cook

Nancy Gorman - December 28, 2016 at 11:42 PM

“ Beautiful. I will miss Rick's caring spirit and friendship. Love, Gayle

Gayle Kennedy - December 30, 2016 at 03:16 PM

“ It's a beautiful video, Nancy. You two had a wonderful relationship - it's obvious. My best to you. Babs

Barbara Bower - January 21, 2017 at 07:04 PM

“ 31 files added to the album LifeTributes

Attrell's Newberg Funeral Chapel - December 28, 2016 at 02:03 PM