“ Stan and Diana, We are so desperately sorry and saddened by this news of Theresa's sudden death. We just got your Christmas card today and opened it to see this beautiful picture of Theresa and her horse. Oh we know that God is with you both. There are just no words to comfort or make any sense of this. Your words in the card were so peaceful and elegant...you must be given supernatural strength -there is no other explanation. After reading the articles about Theresa we KNOW what an incredible young woman she is. What a legacy she made for herself. Please accept our love and great sympathy! We will be in pray for you every time the Holy Spirit sets you on our hearts! Our deep love to you both, Doug and Sandy Reimer

“ I am so very sorry for your loss. I am praying for your family for strength and peace. I just stumbled across this site and felt it appropriate to send my condolences. I never knew Theresa but Megan Gross and her Mom have been a long time friends of my family. So I knew of Theresa from Maid Marian and was devastated to hear of her accident. I had horses for my entire childhood and could tell how much her horse loved her from the pictures that have been in the paper. Take care and thinking of you.

“ Mr. and Mrs. Stanley, My heart goes out to you. Theresa was one of the greatest people to walk this Earth. I feel so privileged to call her my close friend. Even though I changed schools at the start of high school, I still regarded Theresa as a true best friend here in Sherwood. I have great memories of her - going to the sixth and seventh midnight Harry Potters, the Halloween when we all dressed up as Miss Americas, spending a few days at your house while my parents were away, going up to the cabin, spending the Fourth of July together last year, sharing our adventures in the love of horses, and so much more. This summer, I saw her more than during other summers, and for that, I couldn't be more thankful. Looking back, I never found someone who I had as much in common as I did with Theresa. When we were together, it was like we were never apart. She was sunshine personified. Her kindness could make me forget my troubles, and her smile could make my day so much better. I remember first meeting when we were pretty young and then reconnecting in late elementary school. I am so thankful for the years I had with her. We all love her and miss her dearly. You gave her an incredible life, a life that will remain in many of us forever. My family and I are here for you with whatever you may need. May God bless you and her forever. I know in my heart that she is looking down at us and smiling, patiently waiting to see us again. Much love, Julie Grove

“ Dear Stan and Diana, We are stunned and heartbroken and words don't do justice to the depths of our sorrow. Despite how we are feeling right now, we do remember all the wonderful ways in which Theresa touched our lives with her beautiful smile, funny comments, and most important, her warmth and caring towards others. We are all better off because of her. If we can help in any way, just say the word. We will see you at the memorial. With prayers and love, Karen and Les

“ I never met Theresa, yet she touched me. I remember hearing of her arrival, the joyous little baby who loved spicy food. I saw pictures of your smiling girl whenever I would visit with Bernie and Lou. The family portraits, christmas calendars, and photos of her achievements were always so special and shown with pride and love. Family forever. She is in our hearts and prayers- always- as are you. Love Christine
