

Tsor "Tsxovaj" McClellan

January 8, 1977 - February 11, 2016

WORDS FOR TSOR

On Feb 11, 2016 our Tsor, was lifted up into the heavens. It was a beautiful day. There was sun and rain, wind and calmness, gray clouds and blue skies. Beside Tsor was her husband Sean and family, wishing so much to be able to keep her here but surrounding her with love for her transformation and next journey.

Tsor's name is made of 4 letters and these letters each make some words that speak of the person we all loved and respected.

TRANSFORMATION: Tsor was like a butterfly, graceful and beautiful, she transformed herself and in many ways transformed those around her. Tsor embraced transformation in her own life; she was born, January 8, 1977, in Thailand and embraced her Hmong culture and ancestors. Without letting these deep roots go, Tsor was also a full on true American woman. She had been a California girl, and loved fashion, but Oregon was her home, where she married and raised her son, and in jeans and boots, last year, hiked the trails and enjoyed natural beauty of Oregon. When Tsor became ill and in a time of her own great need she transformed her family and brought everyone together, to support and love each other. Where there were differences Tsor transformed the misunderstanding into forgiveness and Love. Her gifts of love and transformation will live on in our hearts.

SINCERE: Tsor was sincere. When she looked in your eyes and spoke, her words came straight from the heart. She loved her friends and family deeply, she had a special deep love for her husband Sean and her wonderful son Jacques. Tsor spoke the truth. Tsor truly cared deeply for the many people she brought into her circle of life. She shared herself genuinely and truly.

OPENESS: Tsor was open, she was openhearted, interested and willing to share her love and joy. She was open to change, to learning and growing as a person. She was open-minded. When she opened her arms and gave a hug it was full of feeling. Tsor was generous and happy to give of herself. If Tsor had been a cowgirl, one would say she threw a big loop, and on this last ride, she swung her rope wide and pulled so many of us in together, and opened her heart to share her love.

RIGHTOUSNESS: Tsor was righteous, she cared about what was right and was not at all afraid to stand up for it. She demanded that those around upheld those standards and if not Tsor could quickly set you straight. Tsor was righteous in the way she lived her life, she worked hard and set high standards for herself and others. She took her responsibilities in life seriously and did her best for her family, in her work and world.

Tsor's name had 4 letters and Tsor was not afraid of 4 letter words. With these words she could sincerely open minds and transform when it was righteous and necessary. There are some other 4 letters words that really describe the special butterfly she was, words like Love, Hugs, Team, Real, Gift, Wise, Calm, Warm, Kind, Soul, Rock, Fire, Free, Tsor.

Tsor walked with strength on her path. She was a leader, and helped others to find and walk their path. She was a rock and an anchor. Tsor was not afraid to go ahead. Her love, spirit and lessons live on within us:

To live our lives with joy,

To do our very best,

To work hard,

To be brave and righteous,

To be truthful to ourselves and others,

To lead the way, with love, compassion and forgiveness.

Events

FEB Visitation 05:00PM - 08:00PM

16

Attrell's Funeral Chapel - Newberg
207 Villa Road, Newberg, OR, US, 97132

FEB Funeral Mass 11:00AM - 12:00PM

17

St Paul Catholic Church
20217 Christie St, St Paul, OR, US, 97137

FEB Graveside Service 01:00PM - 01:30PM

17

Mountainside Cemetery
17675 SW Hillsboro Hwy, Hillsboro, OR, US, 97123

Comments

“ Tsor was one of the kindest people you will ever meet. She always saw the good in everyone. I remember she was the first person to befriend me when I first moved to Sacramento. We become close friends from the beginning because she was so kind and wanted me to feel included. I love you, Tsor. Rest in haven free from pain.

Staci Xiong - February 17, 2016 at 04:24 PM

“ We are consumed with sadness to learn about Tsor's passing. We will always remember Tsor and the fun times we all had together. We feel lucky we had the pleasure of knowing her. Sean and Jacques, we are thinking of you during this sad time.

Sang and Elena Nguyen

Sang and Elena - February 16, 2016 at 01:32 AM

“ I am so sad to hear Tsor is no longer here with us. She was so sweet. She always took the time to talk to you. She was so supportive and always had a smile for you. She had a sweet little boy and husband. She will be missed by a lot of people.

Sue Moon - February 15, 2016 at 10:30 PM

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

andree' - February 15, 2016 at 07:36 AM

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

Tina Vang - February 15, 2016 at 02:29 AM

“ Tina Vang lit a candle in memory of Tsor "Tsxovaj" McClellan

Tina Vang - February 15, 2016 at 02:17 AM

“ My beloved sister, Tsor, I love you. I will never forget your beautiful bright smile and heart as pure as gold. Rest in peace with our Heavenly Father free of pain until we meet again.

Tina Vang - February 15, 2016 at 02:26 AM

“ Tsor, I never got a chance to meet you but your husband & little boy have become a part of my daily thoughts & prayers over the last 10 days. I've heard & read such wonderful things about you. I pray that you are at peace & I pray that your family finds the strength they need to get through this. All of our love to the entire family.

Lisa Thomasson - February 13, 2016 at 05:57 PM

“ Tsor and I worked together. I knew I could always count on Tsor for a kind word and beautiful smile. We would always meet in the bathroom and laugh at our timing. We recently shared excitement over both moving to Newberg! I will miss you dearly my friend! You were taken too early. My prayers go out to your beautiful family for a way to find peace!

cyndie Gomez - February 13, 2016 at 01:30 PM

“ My friend Tsor took me for my first bowl of Pho- we laughed cuz I couldn't pronounce the name!!!! On Pay Day we would go have "Friday Pho" I was one of her walking buddies at work- we walked rain snow or shine one year. I will miss my great friend.

andree' - February 13, 2016 at 10:46 AM

“ The Fessler Family sent a virtual gift in memory of Tsor "Tsx0 Vaj" McClellan

The Fessler Family - February 13, 2016 at 12:43 AM

“ In memory of Tsor.

The Fessler Family - February 13, 2016 at 12:44 AM

“ The Fessler Family lit a candle in memory of Tsor "Tsxovaj" McClellan

The Fessler Family - February 13, 2016 at 12:39 AM

“ Tsor was a wonderful wife, mother, friend, etc. When you were around her, there was always a smile on her face. She loved her son with all her heart and soul, as well as her husband. She was a true gem, the kind you only find once in a lifetime.

Our deepest sympathy goes out to Sean, Jacques, and Tsor's family. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all.

The Fessler Family - February 13, 2016 at 12:42 AM

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

veronica cuellar lopez - February 12, 2016 at 11:27 PM

“ At Cashe Creek Casino, I left Tsor at a slot machine. Check on her 5 minutes later and she won a $60. She wanted to leave right away since she was $60 richer. She has such a pure soul. She is the most genuine person I will ever have in my life. Until we meet again my angel, my sweet sister.

Nhung - February 12, 2016 at 10:37 PM

“ We'd use to skip classes in high school only to go to the library at a nearby community college and just "chilled". We thought we were the coolest chicks EVER and in most ways, we were. Tsor was the kindest most passionate woman.

Phuong Nguyen - February 12, 2016 at 04:03 PM

“ During our twenties, Tsor, Veronica, and I used to go the 18 and over club from Wednesday to Saturday. And sometimes sleep for only a few a hours and wake up to go to work. We were inseparable. We lived together, party, shop, and even worked together. Probably together for 22 hours out of a day. And loved every minute with her. She was more than a sister to me and my sister. She might be in Heaven now but she is living within her son who is a spitting image of her. His beautiful smile! Thank you Tsor for giving all of us that wonderful Gift. Your son. You are not alone my dear friend, my love is up there with his open arms to hold you and laugh with you as you both will watch over us here everyday and guide us with your love and strength so we live on. You will never be forgotten, but will be missed so greatly. I love you sweetie!

Terri Viadurry - February 12, 2016 at 07:11 PM

“ Yes, we sure lived at the Conga! I will always remember how hard we used to laugh! I was blessed to have such an amazing friend that was there for my wedding as a bridesmaid and always there to lend a year. May your soul rest in peace in God's kingdom. God bless your family and give them strength through this journey...

veronica cuellar lopez - February 12, 2016 at 11:19 PM

“ Richard and I are were so blessed to have met Tsor for several occasions. She had a genuineness about her that was so authentic. Her smile and they way she looked you in the eyes was to honor everything you said to her. The way she interacted with everyone was so beautiful. Sean and Jacques were everything to her. We feel so honored to have known her even for a little while. Tsor's Light will shine forever! That was the gift she left to the rest of us.

Namaste,
Rebecca and Richard

Rebecca/Richard Duncan - February 15, 2016 at 11:17 AM

“ Tsor - I met you through my sister, you were her friend 1st and it took me some time to become close to you because back then you were older and did older things with my sister, Terri, but once we became close, we worked together, ate on our lunches together and as soon as I turned 21 went clubbing together. I miss you so much and you have touched so many people in so many special ways. Until we meet again you will always be in our hearts
- Sophany

sophany - February 16, 2016 at 01:01 PM

“ I had the pleasure of working with Tsor. She truly had a beautiful soul. She was kind, honest and patient. I know she adored her family. I am sorry for the family's loss. I pray your love and memories will sustain the family during this difficult time. She is gone to soon.

Cheryl Moffitt - February 17, 2016 at 09:11 AM