“ Working with AI for so many years at Ushio, he became a person I knew that no matter what would help with anything whether personal or company related. Before I left Ushio in April I remember talking with him in great lengths about his illness but mostly he had to show me pictures of your cat....It brings a smile to my face just remembering how happy he was in spite of his health. I am pretty sure I never heard a man talk more fondly about his wife and kids than AI did. I will forever be sorry I didn't get the chance to say goodbye but I'll be forever blessed having had the chance to know him.

“Wishing you peace to bring comfort, courage to face the days ahead and loving memories to forever hold in your hearts. Perhaps they are not the stars, but rather openings in Heaven where the love of our lost ones pours through and shines down upon us to let us know that they are happy.
