

Alexander R. Stark

February 22, 1979 - May 31, 2019

Alexander Ridgley Stark was born the son of Alan James Stark and Susan Dee (Ridgley) Stark on Thursday, Feb. 22, 1979 in Hillsboro, Oregon.

Alex died peacefully in his sleep Friday, May 31, 2019 at Sunnyside Hospital.

Alex was an unbiased man. He was there for everyone, in his life. He had a big heart and was always there to help, advise or listen. He had a love for nature which was shown through his farming and gardening.

Alex was a true animal lover and cared for his many rescues including his beloved Boston Terrier, Lucy. Those who knew him loved him. Those who loved him, will miss him forever.

Survivors include his many relatives and dear friends. Along with his three most treasured beings, his wife, Jessica Eighme Stark, his oldest son, Jackson Ridgley Stark and his youngest son, Graham Alexander Stark.

He will be laid to rest at Valley View Memorial Park

Memorial contributions may be made to the National Kidney Foundation and/or the Lupas Foundation.

Through this site, we invite you to share your thoughts and fond memories with his family.

Tribute Wall

WL

“ Wanda Love lit a candle in memory of Alexander R. Stark

Wanda Love - June 07, 2019 at 12:49 AM

WL

“ Prayers for comfort being sent to all who loved Alexander. No words can lessen the pain and sadness in your hearts. 💜

Wanda Love - June 07, 2019 at 12:48 AM