

Allen Edward Day

July 30, 1957 - May 25, 2010

Allen E. Day, 52, of Dundee, OR passed away May 25, 2010, at home. Allen was born July 30, 1957, in Oregon City to Edward and Julia Day. It was here in Oregon City that Allen worked as a fourth generation farmer on his family's berry farm for years before founding his own real estate investment company. Although Allen moved away from the farm, he took his love of the outdoors with him, becoming a skilled marksman and avid hunter. While he loved the outdoors, Allen's greatest love was for people. He enjoyed spending most of his time surrounded by family and friends. Allen is survived by his mother Julia, his wife Beth and his two daughters, Kim and Kristen. His Memorial Service will be Saturday, June 5, at 11 a.m. in Scholls Community Church in Hillsboro, with Pastor Steve Stanley officiating. A Graveside Service will follow at 2:00 p.m. at Mountain View Cemetery in Oregon City. Arrangements are in the care of Attrell's Newberg Funeral Chapel, a Golden Rule Funeral Home. “ Julie, Beth, Kristen, and Kim, I am so sorry to learn of Alan's passing. If there is anything I can do, please don't hesitate to ask. I'm sorry none of us knew anything sooner. Victor and I were very fond of Alan, what a sweet, compassionate man he was. I hope you all are doing ok. I tried to call the home number that I had, but I'm not sure if it's correct. I love you Aunt Beth. Love Michelle

“ I was extremely saddened by the news of Allen's death, and since I heard of it several days ago, I've reflected a lot on our childhood together in West Linn. As children, Allen and the four of us (Sharon, Mark, Gary and myself) spent countless hours together roaming the woods and fields on and around the Day family farms. For many years, I worked summers on the farm with Allen and my two brothers, and I have so many fond memories of those years. Allen was once as close to me as my own siblings. Though I'd not seen Allen in at least 15 years, he will always be a part of my life and history. I'm so very sorry about your loss, and hope and pray that as time passes, it lessen the pain for you all. To Beth, Julie and family - my heart and thoughts go out to you. Warmest regards, Carolyn (Schleiss) Hill - John, Amanda and Nolan Hill.
