

Amy Erin Anderson Engels

August 31, 1976 - July 4, 2012

Amy Erin Anderson Engels Amy Erin Anderson Engels, born in Hillsboro Oregon on August 31, 1976 was tragically shot and killed by her estranged husband on July 4th, 2012. She was a lifelong resident of the area and attended Dundee Elementary School, Renee Middle School, and graduated from Newberg High School in 1994. She had moved back to Dundee in 1999. She was a cosmetologist – her eye for beauty and her artistic flair were evident in her work. She married in 1998 and was the mother of two beautiful children, who were always loved and kept close to her heart. She had a natural ability to help you in the way you needed. She was full of life, and her family and friends will always remember her quick wit and the ease with which she brought a smile to their faces. She is survived by her father and mother - Tom and Shelly Anderson, her brother and his wife – Matt and Michelle Anderson, and their two children along with many other loving family members and dear friends who will always miss her. A domestic violence fund is being established in her and her children's names at Bank of America by her mother and sister-in-law. A ceremony for her and her two children will be held Saturday, July 14, 2012 at 11 a.m. in Bauman Auditorium at George Fox University in Newberg for the public. Arrangements are in the care of Attrell's Newberg Funeral Chapel. Online condolences may be made at www.attrells.com.

“ I know it had been a long time since I last saw Amy, but she has never been far from my mind. She was my very first friend in this world and has never been absent from my thoughts. I am heart-broken. So many memories have come flooding back. If I weren't 2600 miles away I would have come to the memorial. I am so sorry. So very sorry for everything you have lost. Your family, as always, is in my thoughts. Everything I have tried to write just seems wrong. All of it, so wrong. Please let me know if there is anything I can do at all. Love from the little girl across the street.

“ Shelley, Tom, and Matt, I am so sorry that Amy, Bailey, and Jackson were taken from all of us so tragically. I was just up the street visiting my parents and hoping to have coffee with Amy before I left. I looked for her every time I went to Fred's since that is where I usually saw her. She was the best friend to me in high school and I will always hold her close to my heart. I still have all of our movie passes, letters she wrote me when we were supposed to be paying attention in class, and all of the loving cards she sent me to make my day brighter. We went our separate ways as we moved on in our lives, but she was always the best friend I ever had. She was the truest any person could ever be. My parents and brother are devastated as well as she was a part of our family. My love to you all and know that I am just one of the thousands that their lives touched. I wish so much that I could be there on Saturday but I am back in Las Vegas. Peace and strength to your whole family. Love and sadness always, Brandee, Shylee, Harrison, and baby Kayliana Green (Chang)

“ I am so sorry for the great loss that you are all experiencing. Amy was such a sweet gal always. I was not a close friend but have known her since high school. My prayers are with the entire family for the loss of a wonderful mother and her beautiful children. Such a tragic event. Nothing I can say can undo or help heal the hurt you all are going through. Just know that many prayers are going up for your entire family and all friends of the family. I pray you all find peace and comfort in the arms of God!

“ I've only worked at Dundee Elementary for one year but was immediately taken by Jackson's quick smile and his constant efforts during wallball games to be fair and kind to other students. His winning smile will always warm my heart as I remember his wholesome and engaging ways. Amy's smile and warm personality was always bright, too, as she worked with school projects and supported our classrooms in many ways. Although I did not know her personally, I knew she was one of the few who could always be counted on to bring added sparkle to every part of our school. Please know that my love and prayers will be with your family as they endure this unprecedented tragedy. God is able to bring comfort and peace of mind and restore your joy in Him as you trust His infinite love. May His peace bring you strength and grace. Jeremiah 29:11 helps me when I am grieving over the loss of a loved one: "I know the plans I have for you, says the Lord, plans for good, not for evil, plans to give you hope and a future." With much love and many prayers, Susan Sloan, LRC classroom, Dundee Elementary

“ Please accept our prayers of comfort and love. Amy and her children were pure beauty and goodness. I loved being Amy's gymnastic teacher all those years. Her efforts, sweetness, and enthusiasm for gymnastics were wonderful. I loved her because she loved me too. I understand how it feels to lose a child in an untimely manner, although a grand mal seizure took our Alma at age 22, she is never far from our minds and hearts. We love our daughters in life and in death. I am sorry beyond belief that Amy was taken so violently. May God bring comfort as only He can. I believe Amy, Bailey, and Jackson are with our Lord and rest in His perfect love. We send our love through prayer. Vicki Acosta and family

“ Dear Anderson Family, I had the privilege of serving Bailey and Jackson as their school librarian at Dundee Elementary School. Bailey was in 5th grade when I started as the librarian. I always knew who she was because of her beauty and kindness to her classmates. Jackson stood out in my mind because he always had a smile and loved to check out the State Books. He was easy to talk with and was a joy to have in the library. You and your family are in my thoughts and prayers during this most difficult time. Paulette Hansen
