

Barbara Eloise Wilson

February 21, 1937 - December 6, 2015

A Memorial Service will be held at Attrell's Sherwood Funeral Chapel. The date and time for the service is pending at this time.

Tribute Wall

LM

“ Dear Auntie Barbara, Thank you for all love, care and laughter you gave so generously. The memories of New Year Eve's, trips to the coast and family gatherings with the Wilsons and are so special. You and mom singing silly songs, the modern dance recital (you were the best babbling brook), and games of gin rummy

I Love you, and miss you!

Linda Mokler

Linda Mokler - December 21, 2015 at 10:07 AM

DH

“ There are few people that honestly make a significant impact on one’s life, and Barbara Wilson was one of mine. We met through my friendship with Jenni in high school. My friendship with Barb began one late evening as we walked and talked for hours near her home in Corvallis pushing my moped up and down hills. We must have talked until 3am. I remember asking at one point “is your family concerned about your whereabouts?” We had a good laugh as no one looked for her (even though we were only sitting up the street). I guess they all knew that she had her buddy Motts and nothing would be allowed to harm Barb as long as Motts was near. For those of you that have known Barb for a long time, you know Motts and how much she loved that dog and that dog loved her. Barb and Motts also had a mutual love of the beach. That was truly their favorite place.

After leaving high school and looking for my next step in life, Barb took me in and gave me a place even though it was during a very rough time in her life. That was Barb, giving when she had very little herself. During that time we had many great conversations and her guidance as I shared my thoughts of what to do, are still with me to this day. Barb always listened to me and shared great insights. I respected her a great deal. She genuinely cared and wanted to help, she did. Barb thanked me many times for helping her but it was truly Barb who helped me, more than she will ever know.

Barb will always be with me, her smile, her laugh, and crazy ways. She would give you the tightest hugs and genuine kiss on the cheek.

To Jenni and Julie, thank you for letting me be a part of your family. Your mom was a big part of my life. I have many great memories of your mother and your family!

Dan Hascall - December 12, 2015 at 09:56 PM