“ Ms. Karen will always hold you in her heart, sweet little Cameron. I saw you every day in the lunchroom and often times during your school day. I remember the first day you enrolled at Bluebonnet and remember how curious and bright you were, sitting on the floor, intently playing with your video games. You are a precious child of God, now tenderly held in His arms, and I will always remember you, joyously dancing through the halls of BES.

“ I knew Cameron when he was at Bluebonnet Elementary. He was to be one of my students in his first grade year. He was a sweet beautiful boy who will always remain in my heart.
