

Carl Edward Lierman

April 7, 1949 - December 2, 2014

In Loving Memory Carl Edward Lierman Carl Edward Lierman, 65, left us on December 2, 2014, going peacefully in his sleep. Carl was born in Portland, Oregon on April 7, 1949. Carl moved with his family to Lincoln City in second grade. He moved back to the Portland area his senior year of high school, and he graduated from Tigard High in 1967. He attended Portland Community College and received a Radio Operations and Maintenance Certificate. After completing school, he followed in his father's footsteps delivering the Oregonian for over 35 years. Carl's real passions were serving his Church and the Trail Blazer Basketball Team. Carl attended Portland First Church of the Nazarene for over 45 years, participating in the choir, running the sound system, and helping with various other programs. He was also part of the Trail Blazer Booster Club for 15 years. Carl is survived by his twin sister Carol, his sister Donna, her husband Denny, and his niece Jolane. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Portland First Church of the Nazarene in Carl's memory. Arrangements are in the care of Attrell's Sherwood Funeral Chapel, a Golden Rule Funeral Home. Online condolences may be made at www.attrells.com.
