“ Hello, my name is Kimberly. First, I am so sorry for your loss. It is painful to lose uour father, I lost mine last September.

I am so sad to see that Reb has passed 😞 He was a great man. He influenced me in a positive way. I use to work out at the Sherwood YMCA. I went through some depression. I truly believe Reb could tell. He would ask me to walk around the track with him and talk if I needed to. He shared he was a follower of god. I could tell god was working through him to lift my spirits. I would show up a different times. While on the treadmill, I would hear his voice yelling across the gym...Kimberly!!! How many miles? You can do another! Walk with me. He always wore these watermelon colored nikes. He would always tell me not to give up. To keep going. At that same time, he shared a story about losing a son. He felt horrible. I tried to lift him up. I always remember he was training for something. He often talked about his wife and family. He was so strong and kind at the same time. Always a positive influence.

I had to cancel my membership at the local YMCA over the last 2/3 years, but had hoped to see him again someday.

The world needs more Rebs....he was a good man.

*Sincerely,
Kimberly*

“ I was just a snot nosed kid when I was introduced to Ol' Reb at Lake Maggorie on the outskirts of St.Petersburg, Fl. What caught my young eyes was that very likable cartoon like johnny rebel painted on the hull of his hydroplane boat.Little did I know that our lives and path's would cross several years latter in life. After my high school years I took up a life in the world of NASCAR stock car racing in the Carolina's. A Racer's Reuion in central NC has us reconnect along about mid 80 ish's allowing us to share old memories and friendships lost do to time. This event allow us to bring back original untouched cars from yesteryear to show and drive.I made a lifetime contract with "Reb" for as long as this event was held I would provide him a car to drive as long as he wanted to do it ! My condolences to the surviving family member's for there loss as well as mine and R. I. P. my good Friend Billy Biscoe and Faimly
