“ Happy Birthday my "Brutha" (o: a few of us are getting together today at the GATE to hoist a few in your memory.

You are still VERY SORELY MISSED and there's not a day goes by where I don't think upon you and our friendship.

When ever there's a gathering of us, we always have a great laugh remembering the times we've had together and reminiscing of your "Clyde-isms" :o)

I know you are one of the angelic voices of the Lords choir. You are truly a blessing to Heaven.

I love you my friend and I know you'll be with us today.

From the Roach family in Burlington I want to let the Reading family know we are keeping you in our prayers. We all grew up together, partied together and went to church together. I still remember Clyde as a little boy in Sunday School and the time he, my brother, William, and two other friends tried to start a singing group. I pray for strength for the journey you have to face during this time and the peace and comfort God will provide.
