

Colton Joseph Fettig

November 17, 1989 - April 7, 2012

Colton J. Fettig November 17, 1989 ~ April 7, 2012 Colton J. Fettig was born on Nov. 17, 1989 in Las Vegas, Nev., to Joseph and Elizabeth Fettig. Colton was a longtime resident of Newberg and attended Newberg High School. After high school, he attended OSU and majored in construction management with dreams of owning his own business. Colton was a great lover of the outdoors. His favorite pastime was hunting elk with his father in Eastern Oregon and fishing with family and friends. He loved his girlfriend and his truck and they could both often be found hanging out with friends somewhere in the woods. Colton worked his way through college by making an annual summer trip to Alaska, putting in many hours with his friend Jordan Boggs painting military housing units and other commercial projects. While attending college, Colton became a member of the Theta Chi fraternity, and these young men became his extended family. He believed in his brothers and what they stood for and they believed in him. The family is grateful for all the community support and express a special thank you to Colton's Theta Chi brothers. Colton's family was large by most standards and very close. Survivors include his father and mother, Joseph and Elizabeth Fettig of Newberg; sisters Jessica, Josie and Allison Fettig, all of Newberg; grandmother Paulene Fettig of Dundee, grandfather Donald Fettig of Lafayette; grandfather Donald Longaberger of Newberg; and countless loving aunts, uncles and cousins from Oregon to Wisconsin. He was preceded in death by his grandmother, Patricia Longaberger. Services will be held, Sunday, April 15, 2012 at 2 p.m. at Newberg Christian Church, 2315 Villa Rd., Newberg, with David Case officiating. A potluck reception will follow. Please feel free to bring a side dish. In lieu of flowers, there will be a contribution box set up at the memorial to help fund a trip for family and friends to travel to Eastern Oregon and fulfill Colton's wish to have his ashes spread over the mountains he loved to hunt. Attrell's Funeral Chapel is in charge of arrangements.

“ We live in North Pole and are long time friends of the Boggs family. We are so sorry for your huge loss. We heard good things about your son from Joel. He had the highest respect for him. You raised a good son. I pray you find comfort in your memories and God's supreme strength. I cannot imagine how you must feel, but, I know Joel and Rita say they are only able to stand with the comfort He has provided. I know you must feel the same. This will leave a huge hole in your hearts and lives. I have close friends who also lost a young daughter in a tragic accident and seeing how God has helped them, helps me to trust God more. He only promises us the grace and strength we need for the day and tomorrow will take care of itself as we need it. I have no idea what you are going through, but we are so very sorry. In Christ's love, Eileen and Ed Brado

“ Sad can't describe what has happened to Colton, to his family and to his many friends. Sudden; tragic; shocking; and eternal ... for everyone who knew Colton. My prayers to you all, and my hopes that his lifes-memory will eventually become greater than the emptiness, loss and heartbreak you feel now. So sorry : (

“ Joe, Elizabeth and daughters, We want to let you know how very sorry we both are about your tragic loss of Colton. He was a friend of our grand-daughter, Korina. Keep him in your hearts and minds as we do our son, Rob, who also recently died due to alcohol. Our prayers are with all of you at this time.
