

Connie Lynn Sturgill

August 27, 1947 - February 21, 2024

Connie passed away of natural causes in her Newberg, Oregon home. She was born in San Pedro, California to Noah Sisco and Bertha (Griggs) Sisco. Connie spent time growing up in the Beaumont Texas area, where she was raised by her Uncle Jesse Fruge and Aunt Ruby (Griggs) Fruge. She later moved to the Northern California area where she spent much of her life living and working in the Northern California area until she met and married her second husband, David LeRoy Sturgill of Springfield, Oregon in 1990.

Connie is survived by her two biological daughters; Denise Renee (Alexander) Pearson of California and Amber Rose (D'Aiello) Gardner of Oregon, along with her 5 biological grandchildren and 2 great-grandchildren. From oldest to youngest; Chase Dietz, Tyler Ebert, Paige Pearson, Mason Gardner and Gavon Gardner. And great-grandchildren; Olivia and James Ebert. Connie preceded the deaths of her parents, adopted family, 5 siblings, and husband David LeRoy Sturgill who passed away suddenly on July 6th, 2012.

Rest in peace Mom. Grandma. Connie. You lived a lifetime of challenges no one should have to, while at the same time had blessings in life so many could only wish for. More than anything, you left this world endlessly loved.

A private viewing took place the day following her death. Private memorial plans will be concluded by her daughters, in alignment with Connie's wishes for cremation and her ashes to be released into the ocean.

In lieu of flowers, donations in memory of Connie may be made to the Brain & Behavior Research Foundation, <https://bbrfoundation.org/>
