

Daniel Ramon Olivas

April 12, 1978 - June 26, 2024

Daniel Ramon “Danno” Olivas, 46, passed away June 26, 2024. He was born in Hillsboro, OR on April 12, 1978 to Ramon Olivas and Marva Weise.

He grew up in Hillsboro and the surrounding area. After school, he started his life-long career with Cascade Auto Glass where he worked for 28 years. He married Julie Mansfield on July 16, 2004. They eventually made their home in Newberg, OR. Their daughter, Johanna, arrived in July 2008 and was Danno’s pride and joy.

Danno was a big fan of the Blazers, Seahawks, University of Oregon football and Gonzaga basketball. He was an avid movie watcher and tv enthusiast, especially if it was funny. He also enjoyed reading. He never missed a Marvel movie or a Steven King book. He and his brother, Mike, built an extensive and eclectic music collection which they would spend hours listening to. That love of music was shared with Johanna. His annual camping trips brought him rest and relaxation and he would always look forward to his Memorial Day and Brothers Weekend trips as he loved spending time outdoors. Danno had a big heart and would be of help wherever he could. He frequently gave blood to the Red Cross, which likely saved or improved many lives. Danno’s sense of humor was epic! He was extremely sarcastic and funny. He loved gags, dad jokes and pranks.

Family meant so much to Danno. He is survived by his wife Julie, daughter Johanna, mother Marva, step-father Bob Heider, brothers Mike (Shelly) and Daniel (Cindy) Belew, aunts Gloria Leonard, Susie Olivas and Gloria (Luis) Madrid, and his nieces and nephews. He also leaves behind many beloved family members, friends and co-workers. He was preceded in death by his grandparents Marven and Maxine Weise and Sirenio Olivas and Manuelita Sanchez, his father Ramon, his uncle John Leonard, and several aunts and uncles on the Olivas side.

A memorial service will be held at Northwest Christian Church in Newberg on Saturday, July 13 at 11 am with a potluck dinner to follow. A private burial will be held the day before at Valley View Memorial Park.
