Dave and Debbie were wonderful friends during our years in Charleston WV (1975-83). Your home there was always a place of genuine hospitality, great food, and contagious laughter. I never think of either of them without a smile coming to my face. (Debbie was the only person in all my days who referred to me as "Sweet Pea!," something she always said with a mischievous twinkle in her eyes!) I grieve her death and give thanks to God for her friendship. The photo above was from 1986 when Dave and Debbie visited us in Atlanta. We were standing atop Stone Mountain with downtown Atlanta in the far distance. Please know of our warmest regards to you and our deep appreciation for letting us know about her death. Grace and peace to you! --Lee (& Betty) Carroll

Just heard about the passing of my good friend Debbie. We became fast friends when my husband and I moved to Canaan Valley. We spent many good times together shopping, doing needle point and just talking. May you RIP my good friend. Dianna Strader
