

Deborah K. Craigihead

February 12, 1968 - July 26, 2020

Deborah Craighead, a resident of Sherwood, OR, died unexpectedly on July 26th, 2020 at the age of 52 after a heart attack.

Debbie is survived by her parents, John and Jackie Allen; her husband, Scot Craighead; her children, Katie, Joey, and Sam Craighead; her sister, Kim Allen; her nieces and nephews, Amanda Flores, Matthew Willis, and Anna Long; and her great nephew, Elijah Flores.

Debbie was born on February 12th, 1968 to John and Jackie Allen. She married Scot Craighead on September 15th, 1991. They met on a blind date and that date lasted 30 years. She had three children who were the most important part of her life.

Debbie loved gardening and had a wonderful flower garden. She also enjoyed music. Katie and Joey are both outstanding musicians and Debbie loved listening to them play. They were also very involved in the church's music program and Debbie loved filming the services and their music and editing the videos for their online services during the current pandemic.

A private service is scheduled for Monday the 3rd at Pleasant View Cemetery in Sherwood, OR.

Tribute Wall

RP

“ KATIE AND JOEY: We are deeply saddened by the loss of your mother.....Please know our thoughts and prayers are with YOU....."Rejoice and be exceeding glad for great is her reward in Heaven.....Ronald W. Parrish.....we care!

---

Ronald Parrish - August 04, 2020 at 10:44 PM