“ I had the true pleasure of knowing Deborah at the YMCA in the pool. Her smile always brightened my day. I am so grateful she came that one day and blessed us with her presence one more time. She witnessed to us all the true practice of love and kindness. May she rest in the arms of Jesus and may her family and loved ones be comforted and blessed with all the memories they share.

“ I got to know Debbie at the YMCA. That beautiful lady had the best smile and laugh. We would get the giggles in the pool regularly and it was fun to see her confidence grow in the pool. My heartfelt sympathies to her family at this difficult time. She will be missed immensely. - Marlene Miller
