

Debra Lynn Kramien

November 14, 1952 - April 12, 2026

Debra Lynn Kramien (known lovingly as Deb or Debbie), 73, of Newberg, Oregon, passed away on April 12, 2026.

Born on November 14, 1952, in Sacramento, California, Debra was the daughter of Austin Robinson and Joanne Robinson (née Wills). She was the oldest of five children.

She is survived by her husband of 41 years, Stanley “Rick” Kramien Jr.; her children, Alex Kramien, Amanda Kramien, and Heather Catchpole (née Kramien); her grandchildren, Eternity Catchpole and Gabriel Catchpole; and her brothers, Michael Robinson and Steven Robinson.

Debra was preceded in death by her parents, Austin and Joanne Robinson, and her siblings, Linda Grandy and Kenny Robinson.

Deb began a career in the plumbing supply industry at Familian Northwest in her early twenties. Never shying from a challenge, she worked her way up in a tough “old boys club” environment in the infancy of the company. She became a beloved and highly respected member of the team. Her career led her to meeting Leone Morlan of George Morlan Plumbing, who would later become her mother-in-law and dear friend. Upon marrying Leone’s son Rick, Deb brought her skills to the family business, helping to build the company while raising her young family.

Deb was the life of the party, always the first one on the dance floor. She greeted everyone with a big, warm smile — even in her final days. She loved to travel, read, enjoy a glass of chardonnay, and spend time with her beloved dogs and family.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made in Debra's name to the Alzheimer's Association. <https://events.alz.org/fundraisers/amandakramien>

Deb's fun-loving energy, sincerity, kindness, and deep devotion to her family will be fondly remembered by all who were lucky enough to know her.
