

Dianne Elaine Leslie-Richmond

September 27, 1952 - November 22, 2023

Dianne Elaine Leslie-Richmond passed away at home on November 22, 2023 after several months of failing health. She now rests well in the arms of Jesus.

Dianne was born in Longview, Washington on September 27, 1952 to Millard and Carol Leslie. The family lived in Rainier, Oregon until Dianne was three years old when they moved to Newberg, Oregon to reside on her grandmother's farm.

Dianne grew up in Newberg and graduated from Newberg High School in 1970. An active member of Future Farmers of America, she enjoyed helping care for animals on her family's farm, especially horses.

Following high school, she completed an associate degree at Mt. Hood Community College before starting her career with the City of Portland as a Sewage Plant Engineer.

Dianne married Rick Richmond on December 18, 1985. They lived in the St. John's area of Portland for several years before moving to Scappoose, Oregon.

Artistically talented, Dianne created beautiful stained glass works in her shop and, in her later years, many lovely quilts. She was a great cook, a tireless worker, and incredibly handy with household repairs.

Dianne and Rick spent many years fishing and camping, always with the companionship of their dogs.

Dianne is survived by her five siblings: Carolyn (Geoff) Proehl of Tacoma, Washington; Beth (Fred) Swain of Salem, Oregon; Laurie (Rick) Comfort, Dave (Renaë) Leslie, and Lisa Leslie all of Newberg, Oregon. Dianne also left behind her much-loved Springer Spaniel, Laddie.

Dianne's parents, Millard and Carol, and her husband, Rick, preceded her in death.

Dianne will always be remembered for her compassion, generosity, wit, and unfailing devotion to family and friends, of whom she had many.
