“ I am so sad that Dixie left this life too soon. I knew her for years when she worked at the Scripps Home in Altadena. She was a wonderful, caring, loving and very smart woman who cared for the elderly. I will miss your good spirit and the fun we had. God speed.

“ Dixie....my very dear friend & a "sister" in my heart & soul. Our experiences together were literally life changing, molding our futures into great adventures. We shared tears, joy & So much love & respect. We shared true joy in loving our children and families. We shared lots of laughter. On one drive up to Dwight's home, we joked about opening a B&B in a motel that was for sale... calling it "The Stuck Inn - Lodi, Again." :) Though We moved in different directions, Dixie is Always in my heart. Of course. How could this lovely woman EVER be forgotten. I love you Dixie, Cheryl
