“ I am so incredibly saddened to learn of Don's passing. What a wonderful teacher, co-worker and parent he was. I always remember the kind words he and Miriam had for me, thanking me for teaching 3 of their children, which was very easy as they were all amazing, intelligent, well-behaved students. What a loss for the community, his family and everyone who knew him. I hope God has a plan, because he has taken from us one of the best people I know. Prayers and hugs to his family.

“ Debbie and I are heavy hearted to hear of Don's homecoming...happy for him, sad for Miriam and family and the 1000s he influenced. As his youth pastor in the 80s at Newberg Friends I loved his maturity, passion for the right things, warmth, friendship, competitiveness, and God dependence. It seems so rare to have young person with such a selfless eternal perspective. Don knew he was blessed to be a blessing. We could see from those early days this was going to get good! As I write from eastern Indiana, my heart is there with you all. Keith Vincent
