“ I have wonderful memories of Doris at First Presbyterian Church. She was a faithful attender until more recently. I loved how she and Lu Gimbel, her friend and neighbor, would wear matching outfits for church. Doris was the more talkative of the two. And, she always greeted us with a smile and a hug. We enjoyed Christmas Caroling at their homes for many years. They were always ready to greet us with a huge smile. I will remember her with fondness.

“ I had the honor of meeting this beautiful lady last year by doing her hair in her home. We had an instant liking to each other. She had such a twinkle in her eye. I am so sorry of her loss but grateful for the encounters we had. I'll always remember her. May God provide peace to her family during their grieving. RIP Doris.

“ I fondly remember Doris from the time I was a little guy. My parents and she were friends and spent many good times together. We lived on West Sheridan Street and they lived just down the block. I also have good memories of her working at George Fox. Ken Carsley

“ Remember Doris when she was a young mother and I taught some of her girls in Sunday school. Later became better acquainted when we lived in same mobile park. She was friendly, thoughtful and caring. -- Carol Parrett Morter

Great memories of Sunday School. As the youngest girl I was the one who always asked for "In the Garden" at song time. Mom was so comforted to know her Jesus was calling her home.

Doris and I talked at least once a month for the last three years as I am a volunteer with Community Connections/Faith In Action and we were matched to continue friendly contact through the pandemic. She invited me to her 100th birthday open house and I was sad that we couldn't have one more connection. She was a joy to talk to and a great source of Newberg history. I know her family will miss her like so many others of us will. Thank you for this beautiful picture of her. -- Maureen McShane
