“ Already I miss Dorothy very much. She was such a strong woman, tough at times, and yet she was so much more caring and kind-hearted at the same time. Dorothy was the grandmother I never had and a close friend all in one.

The communities of Tualatin and Wilsonville will surely miss her; for almost 40 years she volunteered in these cities doing various community service.

She stole my heart, I miss her laugh, her smile, so genuine and heartfelt when she shared it.

Till we meet again,
