

Dorothy Cleo Smith

August 14, 1939 - November 30, 2017

Dorothy Cleo Smith was born on August 14, 1939 in Hillsboro, Oregon. She died at home on November 30, 2017 in McMinnville, Oregon surrounded by her children.

Dorothy was the second of five children born to Cleone and her husband William Boyd Fergus shortly after they arrived in the Willamette Valley. She graduated from Newberg High School in 1957 and lived most of her life in that area. She was married twice and early in her life she was employed in social service positions. With the birth of her first of six children she found her greatest treasure, and devoted herself to motherhood and homemaking. She was a devout Latter-Day Saint and spent countless hours serving and mentoring the members of her faith and community.

Dorothy is preceded in death by her parents. She is survived by her children Douglas and Rebecca Carpenter, Steven and Karen Carpenter, Michelle and Thomas Bailey, William Smith, Joseph and Kerisha Smith, Eva and Stanley Shields and her grandchildren and great grandchildren. She is also survived by her brothers Darwin and Barbara Fergus, Howard and Diane Fergus, Golden (Monty) and Teena Fergus, Gary and Marilyn Fergus and numerous nieces and nephews.

A memorial service for Dorothy will be held at The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, 18565 S Hwy 99W, Amity, OR, on Saturday, December 16, 2017 at 10:00 am. (Private Interment)

In lieu of flowers and in honor of Dorothy's charitable spirit, please search for opportunities to share your time, talent, and treasure to bless the lives of others.
