

Fo Good

April 21, 1915 - July 14, 2011

Fo Good Fo Good (96) died July 14, 2011 in Newberg. A celebration of Life will be held Friday, July 22, 2011 at 2:00 p.m. in First United Methodist Church, Newberg. She was born on April 21, 1915 in Heeg, Friesland, Holland to Enne Feenstra and Minke (Westra) Feenstra. She was the second child out of ten. She lived in Holland until November of 1948, when she, with her family immigrated to the United States and lived near Newberg. She moved to several cities and finally settled in Cloverdale in July of 1952, running a dairy farm with her family for 25 years. She lived in the Cloverdale area until July 2006 when she moved back to Newberg. Born as Fokeltje Feenstra, she was married four times in her lifetime. All husbands, Douwe Haitsma, Weiger Wuite, Lloyd Stouffer and Lee Good preceded her in death. Also, two sons, Jack Wuite (1983) and Donald Wuite (1994), and three stepchildren, Howard Good, Barbara Alexander and Jean Stouffer, preceded her in death. She is survived by: sons Ennis Haitsma Wuite of Springfield and Richard Wuite of Eugene; daughters Minka Fuller of Lake Oswego, Clara Pudilo of Lomita, California and Elaine Hutten of Sammamish, Washington; step-sons Ralph Wuite of Yucca Valley, California, and Robert Good of Corpus Christy, Texas; step-daughter Diane Martin of Salem; twenty-five grandchildren, and twenty-four great-grandchildren. Arrangements in the care of Attrell's Funeral Chapel, a Golden Rule Funeral Home.