“ I was sitting in church last Wednesday and we sang this song and it reminded me of my brother J.R. We all grieve differently, but I pray for God's grace and know that this song matches what he believed. Love and miss you brother. I am sure I will never be over your passing but I will have comfort that you have rest and peace.

“ I met Mr. O'Bryan about 4 years ago when I met his son Dallas. Ever since then, he's always been like a father to me. He'd always open his home to me and he'd always feed me if I had not been fed. Mr. O'Bryan was a very genuinely great person and his family is full of great people. I will miss him very much but he'll live on in my heart.

“ I met George a few years ago when he and his family moved to Newberg. I found George to be a one of a kind. He made everyone laugh and also had the biggest kindest heart of any person. He welcomed my family into his and treated us as part of his family. He always opened his home to us.. He was a giant teddy bear.. I do have to say, he was very proud of his boys and wife. I do admire the relationship George had with his family. I will miss my football and wrestling buddy..

“  kindest most gracious person I think I've known...Thank you Jr for always being there for my boys and know we will ALWAYS be there for yours. You touched the lives of so many kids in many towns...those kids will never forget you because you helped to make them men. We love you and miss you today and always....the Bird Family

“  my father was not the fittest man.But he had the most gentle heart.No matter how frustrated he got he never gave up.He welcomed everyone with open arms and never backed out in a promise even if it killed him to do it.In his life he touched many people and loved them like family.His brothers know that he loved you and always wanted to talk and get back together.His death was a tragedy and should of never happen.
