He was born in Columbus, Montana on November 12th, 1927 to George Gordon Sr. & Lucy Mary (Pool) Scott. He was the youngest of five children. His brothers Chester and James and sisters Frances and Grace preceded him in death as did his parents. Known as GG in his younger years, he graduated from Columbus HS in 1945 and enlisted in the US Navy. Upon completion of his hitch on an aircraft carrier in the South Pacific, he worked as a railroad fireman and enrolled at the University of Montana where he met his future wife, Mary Louise (Pinky) McCallie. In 1962, George took a job with Great Western Chemical Company in Portland moving Pinky west with their two children, Patrick and Shannon. A third child, Erin joined the mix in 1965. The family settled in Sherwood in 1968, where George worked their 10 acres for almost 34 years, raising cows, horses, pigs and finally houses. In 1981, Pinky passed away and George opted to stay on the farm and continue their 'project'. Foothills Estates was the culmination of their dream in 1994. George remarried in 1985, bringing Cheryl Dreyer to the farm. She survives him. They moved off Foothills Estates in 2002 to Woodhaven where they shared many new endeavors such as Operation Babylift, a prison mother's clothes program and numerous St. Francis Parish projects.
