“ Jean was my neighbor and friend. We chatted often over a glass of wine in front of the TV. We shared stories about our kids who went to high school together and their lives now. She and her husband were caring and kind to me every day we were neighbors. When they moved to Charboneau, we didn't see as much of each other but kept in touch for awhile. Unfortunately, in the last year, I lost contact with her and I missed her British humor and honest, direct observations of the world.

My heart goes out to her sons, as she was a devoted and loving mom. She left a vacancy in my heart that cannot be filled by anyone else.

Sincerely, Carolann Curthoys (Gretchen and Eric Hollstein's mom)
