“ I got to know Ginger over the past few years through the Bible Study we are both a part of. She was always ready to pray for any needs we shared and had such a sweet spirit about her. I will miss her and her laugh but know she is happy and laughing in her new heavenly home.

“ Ginger and I have been friends for many years - at Salem Public Library, at Newberg Friends Church, at Bible study. Her lovely soprano voice was enjoyed at Friendsview Prayer Meeting when she was able to come from her Dundee home. My sympathies to Emery and Michele, and to her many friends.

“ I didn't know Ginger very well at the time, but remember when she worked at the Library. She was a generous, caring lady who we enjoyed having in our Bible study in recent years.
