

Gregory James Moore

March 11, 1986 - January 13, 2022

Gregory James Moore born March 11, 1986, Tulare, CA passed away January 13, 2022 in Newberg, OR. He is survived by his girlfriend Misty Arnold who is expecting their second child and their son Lucky James Moore. He is also survived by his mother Christine Moore, father and stepmom James and Lindsay Moore, and brothers Thomas, Ean and Ben Moore. Greg also leaves behind his Aunt Sharon Turner, Uncle Walt (Linda) Moore, Uncle Danny (Valeri) Moore, Uncle David Moore, Aunt Margie (Jim) Charles, and Aunt Linda Moore. Cousins Amy (Ronnie) Schendel, Ted (Lisa) Moore, Kari (Curt) Hunter, Lori (Tony) Alvarez, Davia (Bhaj) Johnson, Sam Moore, Donnie (Kaylynn) Charles, Kristen (Bryan) Marsh, and Josh Moore. Grandparents Linda (Allen) Palmer, Uncle David Schluep, Uncle Jon (Ale) Boatman, Aunt Wendy (Will) Rudy, Uncle Joey (Nicole) Palmer, and Uncle Cooper Shadrick along with numerous cousins. Greg was preceded in death by his grandparents Bill Buckhanon, Dolores Moore and Donald Moore, and Uncles Jeff Moore and John Turner.

Growing up, Greg loved video games, running (Greg Legs), and skateboarding (a hobby he never lost). Greg also had a love for clothes. He could never have enough shoes, hats, or jackets. There was hardly a day where you wouldn't see him looking his best, even if he was wearing sweats. Greg had an amazing sense of humor, loved to laugh, and loved deeply. He was notorious for driving fast and was a self-proclaimed professional driver. If you were his friend, you had his total loyalty and knew that if you needed him for anything, he would do everything in his power to be there for you. He was a die-hard Raiders, Dodgers, and Lakers fan who had an uncanny ability to remember just about any and everything for all sports. He was smart, sensitive, and observant. Greg was hard-headed and could argue any side of a debate just to try to win. While his family knew him to be a talker his nickname among his friends was Mute, because he often would sit back and watch without saying much. You can believe though, that when Greg spoke people listened. Greg had that Moore boy smile and charm that could get him anything he wanted. Becoming a dad was Greg's greatest joy, it was something that came so effortlessly to him and you could tell he enjoyed every single second of it. He loved Lucky with everything he had and was so excited to be involved in the birth of his second child. His passing has created an unfillable hole in the hearts of so many people who loved him, he will be greatly missed.

Celebration of Life will be held on Sunday February 20, 2022 - 1-5pm. Visalia Rawhide Stadium - Hall of Fame Club, Visalia, CA.

Previous Events

Celebration of Life

FEB 20. 1:00 PM - 5:00 PM (PT)

Visalia Rawhide Stadium - Hall of Fame Club
440 N. Giddings St.
Visalia, CA 93291

Tribute Wall

WE

“ Sorry I couldn't write on here earlier, it was too painful to face reality. We just got you back in our lives kiddo and just like that you are gone. It is so hard to believe we won't see that shit eating grin, the hearty laugh or that tender spirit of yours. So many good memories of you, things that make me laugh and some that tug at my heart. Will always ❤️ love and miss you. You inspired me to push for and keep that skate park alive in Visalia. Skateboarding is NOT a crime and yep Crack kills blue aliens. Rest in peace, skate those streets of gold and get into some shenanigans with Jon. Until we meet again dear nephew.....I'm a little bit off today!

Wendy - February 21, 2022 at 12:51 PM

BA

“ Greg ,I'm lost for words right now ...you have been my friend for 15 +very memorable years .I can say there was never a dull or boring moment when you were around .I wish we would of made it up there to see you .Thank you for always being a great friend .

Brook armstrong - February 19, 2022 at 10:35 PM

CM

“ Mute....I still can't believe that you're gone, I just spoke to you and we were making plans for when I got up that way....man I Will FOREVER appreciate having you as my friend and "cusband" LMAO. Thank you for the laughs, the cries and the respect you always showed me. I'll never forget you ((pinky promise))

Christiann McCully - January 31, 2022 at 07:38 PM

TW

“ I’m Greg’s aunt and I hadn’t been around him since he was in about the 8th grade. I remember as a little guy he was always quiet and cute as can be. Christine would bring him and Tommy to me for haircuts. They both lived with us for a time, Greg and my son Josh got along very good. He was very kind and loving if you could bring that side of him out. I miss him even though I hadn’t seen him in many many years. Greg and Josh were chatting the night before his passing so hearing that he had passed the next day was quite a shock.

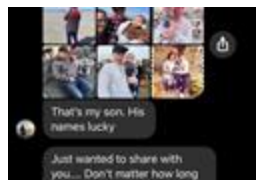

I love you Greg and always have, now you rest and watch over your children and Misty. Tell your uncle Jeff hi for me kiddo.

Until we meet again ❤️

Tamara Walker - January 22, 2022 at 03:43 PM

VE

“ I’ll never forget choir in 7th grade, Greg and Anthony were the 8th grade cool kids in my mind. We were out of control, we could kick the kids chairs in front of us and laugh the entire time all year long. We skated, got into trouble, and became good friends over the years. In good times or bad we were always there for each other. Bummed we missed seeing each other in Chicago recently. He was an awesome guy, and will be deeply missed.

Vernon - January 22, 2022 at 12:32 PM

ST

“ Gregory was my first born nephew. He could never do any wrong in my eyes. Greg and I had unconditional love. Not to say that he could be a little Brat when he was younger. I used to babysit him and brother Tommy. His brother used to love that purple Barney show. Gregory changed all the theme words. He would sing: I hate you, You love me I'll kick Barney in his knees. I would make him put nose in wall. He would melt my heart with those eyes and I let him off. I love and miss him so much. My heart will remain Broken until I leave this earth. We have your little family protected by our Armor of Love. With all my love! Aunt Sharon

Sharon Turner - January 21, 2022 at 08:00 PM

LM

□

Lindsay Moore - January 22, 2022 at 11:01 AM

HE

“ I'll never forget when my dad was mad at us and threw your skateboard in the dumpster outside😂 You went walking down the street going OFF!!!! Then I tried to be nice and get it out and spray it off...I called you to tell you and you were like YOU FING WET IT WITH THE HOSE!!!!!!?? THATS EVEN WORSE!😂 Man your face that day was priceless. Attitude of a toddler sometimes but I wouldn't have traded it for anything. I'm sure lucky will make that exact face when he's upset too. Rest easy.
"What do you wanna do today Gregory?" ... "Um..Take over the world DUH" ♥

Heidi - January 21, 2022 at 03:24 PM

LM

“ I loved you with all my heart and will love you forever. I will watch over Misty and Lucky and your new baby for you and make sure they always remember their daddy. Rest well son.

Lindsay Moore - January 20, 2022 at 07:31 PM

PB

Bless you Lindsay❤️HUGS

Priscilla Brooks - January 21, 2022 at 06:21 PM

sorry for your loss jim and lindsay. i can,t imagine how hard this must be. rest in peace greg.

Mike Brinkley - January 23, 2022 at 11:49 AM

Greg I never had the pleasure of knowing you as an adult, but it doesnt mean I didn't keep tabs on you as you grew up. I remember that little blonde boy that was our flag man in the boat. He was always so happy when we let him take charge of that flag when someone was in the water. He was our little helper every weekend. We had lots of fun back then. I just friended Greg on FB and he accepted, so I was looking forward to keeping in touch with him a little better. I have always Loved you and Tomas very much. My condolences to the whole family and I love you all very much. RIP Greg

Anita Ivans

Anita Ivans - February 18, 2022 at 11:37 AM