

Harold Ray Cappoen

March 18, 1923 - November 17, 2012

Harold Ray Cappoen Newberg resident Harold Ray Cappoen died Nov. 17, 2012. He was 89. He was born at home Mar. 18, 1923 in Sherwood, Oregon to Jerome and Rose (Fuhrer) Cappoen. He attended Laurel Ridge School during his elementary years and worked at a near by bulb farm and various jobs. Later, as a Ship Fitter building Liberty Ships for the war effort. He married Betty Maxine Baker ct. 23, 1942 in Newberg, Oregon. He was inducted into the Army Feb. 1943 and did mechanic work for the military. In Sept. 1944 he was shipped overseas and was in the battles of the Rhineland and central Europe. He came home on the ship, Queen Mary having served 3 years and 9 mos. They made their home in Newberg and later in Yamhill. He worked as an auto mechanic in Newberg for many years and later worked at A-Dec, retiring in 1987. He enjoyed living in the woods, restoring a 1923 Model T Ford, music and reading. He was a member of the Christian Church. Survivors include: Sisters, Margaret Hart of Canby, OR, Dorothy McLean of Puyallup, WA, Brother, Jerry of Federal Way, WA, Daughter, Marlys Johnson of Newberg, Sons, Gary of Newberg, Brian of Yamhill. Three grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his wife, Maxine and brothers Paul and Raymond. A Funeral Service will be held at 11:00 AM. Nov. 27 at Newberg Christian Church, 2315 Villa Road.