

Harold T. Tilden II

February 27, 1955 - June 18, 2019

Harold Theodore Tilden II was called home on June 18, 2019 after a brief fight with cancer. He was born to Harold and Ruth Tilden in Newberg, OR in 1955. Graduating from Newberg High School, he went on to Seattle Pacific University, and then the University of Oregon for his Master's. After graduation, he moved to Saint Louis where he met and married his sweetheart Pam, whom he shared life with for 36 years until his passing. His children and grandchild were the joys of his life, and he was passionate about them. Prior to his retirement, he spent his years working as an environmental scientist who dealt with the cleanup and safe disposal of hazardous and radioactive materials.

Harold was a devoted Christian, and loved the Lord. Among his passions, he was a talented musician and was often using his talent leading worship in church either vocally or with any of the instruments he played. For several years he also was the bass in a Gospel quartet that toured the Pacific Northwest called Crosspoint Vocal Band. He was also a philatelist, collecting stamps from several countries. When traveling, or just at home, he was also fond of trying many types of food.

He is preceded in death by his parents Harold and Ruth Tilden, and his brother David Tilden.

He is survived by his wife Pamela, his daughters Paige (Lindsey) Tilden and Jeana Tilden, his granddaughter Rachel Tilden, and his brother Leslie (Juanita) Tilden.

Through this site, we invite you to share your thoughts and fond memories with his family.

“ I have many happy memories of Harold and Les growing up. Our parents were good friends as well, and we all attended the Free Methodist Church, where my dad was the pastor. Harold and I were in the same class at Newberg High School, and what a bright guy he was! Love and prayers to all the family in your time of loss. We will meet again in heaven! --Nancy (Mathias) Wilhite

“ Harold and I were classmates at Seattle Pacific University. He was a great guy and a brilliant one, with a wonderful sense of humor. The first time I ever heard about Newberg, Oregon was from Harold when he mentioned his hometown, and about 16 years after he and I graduated, I wound up moving here. My family and I have now enjoyed 26 wonderful years in this beautiful city. Thanks, Harold, for telling me about it, and I know you are now delighting in the joys of your forever home in Heaven. I wish I had known about your memorial service here in Newberg, as I certainly would have attended.
