“ You only need to open your Bible to Galatians 5:22-23 to describe Irene. But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control. Irene exhibited all these characteristics and more. Ever so humble and full of gratitude, Irene endeared herself to me. We spent many a lunch discussing her childhood in Canada, Uno's Ministerial years, and her boys. She was proud of each of them. I wasn't sure if Irene remembered me on my last visit, but the twinkle in her beautiful blue eyes gave me encouragement. Thank you for being a part of my life Irene. God be with you!

“ Irene was such a special friend to me. When we first moved into the neighborhood, she was the first person that befriended me. Over time, I began to look upon her as though she was my aunt. She had a gentleness about her and a true love of God. Our visits together were heartfelt and will be remembered forever. I loved her stories of growing up in Canada...her early years of ice skating and being an athlete. She loved animals and it showed. She was a true "gift from god" for those that knew her well. She yearned to be home with her Lord - I am grateful she is now living her dream!
