

Joan Marie Thygesen

November 22, 1930 - September 7, 2015

Joan Marie Thygesen

Joan was born the daughter of Oluf Thygesen, and Gerda Thygesen (Dinesen) on November 22, 1930 in Seattle, Washington.

Joan grew up in Seattle attending Garfield High School, graduating in 1948. She attended Grandview College in Des Moines, Iowa where she earned her Associates Degree. Joan got a job in the financial industry trading stocks and working her way up to Vice President of a financial services company called Sutro & Company in the bay area. She lived most of her adult life in San Francisco and then retiring to the quiet town of Newberg, Oregon.

Joan Marie Thygesen passed away at the age of 84 after a struggle with illness for several years on September 7th 2015 in Newberg at the Marquis Nursing Home.

Surviving and left to honor her life are: her sister Carol Osborn (Gary) of Incline Village, NV, niece Stacy Singledecker and two nephews, Steve and Bret Osborn. She also enjoyed 7 grand-nieces and nephews and those who have come to know and appreciate her where she has lived and worked.

“ Awesome work on the movie. I never knew AJ played the banjo... AJ loved life. She loved all aspects of life. Usually that meant she was giving the business to someone. AJ should've been a character on Seinfeld. She would've fit right in. Have you ever heard anyone use the word "creep" more than AJ? How about the five footer walking around the city liked she owned the place. What a blessing to have AJ in my life. She was always in my corner. Always. There was never a doubt. Even when i was in the wrong she would find a way to make it ok for me. I will miss her positivity. I will miss you AJ but I know you will always be there when I need....
