“ So incredibly sad! Jon and I were brothers from another mother back in High School. We had vast amounts of unbelievable adventures together until graduation and then our lives took us in other directions. I was glad to see him at his reunion years back and about 3 years ago we connected on Facebook and have been in constant communications since. Like Joel I was hoping to go see him soon. This was such a shock. I will miss his wit, love of music and strive toward spirituality. Rest In Peace my brother.

“ I’m so thankful you reached out to me on FB, Cousin..we caught up, connected and became close. We talked about morality and mortality, cross country trucking, personal recovery issues, Music! childhood memories, your Mom, my Mom, growing up with a bum leg(resulting in not being a very good brawler 😊) Tiger, Cheryl, Tawny etc, lost loves and found loves, Jesus, what is namasté, biscuits n gravy, Harley-Davidson and more.I love your totally non-judgemental, forgiving nature..it was always spot on in turning me back to the light, thank you. You were the master at catching the ridiculous absurdities of life, then bringing ‘em to my attention 🤔 and what will I do without you now? You even got my lame ass to play Quiz Planet ! How much fun ..the texts lol . I already miss you TOO much..yet am so excited that you went to sleep and woke up in the Otherwhere that we discussed many times. It’s the part of life that awaits each of us and how we depart doesn’t get any better than yours. God Bless You, Jonathan Colbert, Human Being Extraordinaire.. missed and much loved you are and will be always in my heart 🔥

“ Jonathan Colbert, there is so much I can say about this man. I met him in 2017 at a meeting. We talked afterwards and he walked with me to the courthouse where he attended drug court. He graciously welcomed me in to the program months before I was accepted. I've learned so much from him during our time together. I will miss him dearly, and I will cherish and honor everything that we've share between one another. May his light shine forever by God side.
