“ So sorry to read of Joe's passing. Back in 1987, Mr. Boutin was a worthy adversary. He was the super hero and I was the villain. I was constantly in his office for skipping class. He would assign me Saturday school and then I would skip that. He tried hard to keep me on the right path. I rarely did what I was supposed to do, but I always respected him. A couple years after graduation, I would take aerobics classes from one of his daughters. I remember asking her to tell him "sorry" for me :) Decades later, little Vicki Sherwood is on a good path and will always remember Mr. Boutin.

“ I have so many memories of Mr Boutin. I spent hours with Tracy and was fortunate enough to see Joe in dad mode, mostly trying to keep up with and corral my bestie Tracy, who often times “bent” rules. She really gave him a run for his money!!
He was also the tannest person on the planet! For years when I was at the Boutin family home in Dundee, there was never a time that Joe wasn't outdoors catching rays by the pool.
I admired his teaching skills and the way he made coaching look so easy. His students adored him. I love him because if it weren't for him and Jan I would never have met the best friend I have ever had....my sweet Tracy.
Shine on your family now dear Joe. You are so loved; so missed.
