Although Jo's primary job was raising her six children, she also worked at Save-On Foods, J.C. Penney, and retired from the City of Coquille as Bookkeeper. Upon retiring, Mike and Jo moved to Reedsport, Oregon, where they enjoyed golf, fishing, and family visits to their condo at Brandy Bar Landing. Jo spent her final two years at The Springs at Sherwood, Sherwood, Oregon, where she was loved and admired by their amazing staff.

She is survived by her children, Karen "Patti" (Cliff) Groat, Pam (Russ) Pratt, Kim (Jerry) Gregory, Rick (Lori) Miska, and Jodi (Kelly) Carsh, 14 grand children, and 8 great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband, Myron B.
