“Joyce loved to play cards, especially pinochle. We shared several annual campouts at the Jim ferry farm. Many occasions we gathered at my house to play dominoes (Mexican train). She always looked her best. I always noticed her well trimmed nails and well kept hair (thanks to Kecia). Fond memories some humorous. Rest in peace friend. Velma Woolley

I will certainly miss my Aunt Joyce. I have so many good memories of her, we had a lot of good times ! One of my favorite memories was sitting on her bed when I was 6 years old and she polished my fingernails. She was in high school. WW2 was still going at that time and when air raid sirens blared grandma pulled all the shades, lights all out and the whole family gathered in a small central hall in the middle of the house. So scary! The good times were plentiful tho, I got to be a Maypole princess at her high school as did Jackie and Penny ! Lots of fun times. ❤️❤️❤️ She lived a good long life and was an inspiration ! RIP Aunt Joyce !
