

Julia M. Day

February 16, 1923 - March 30, 2014

In Loving Memory Julia M. Day Julia M. Day, age 91 died on March 30, 2014. She was born in Oregon City, OR, February 16, 1923. The eldest of four children of John and Mary (Gracis) Koblar. Julia attended McLaughlin Institute, a Parochial School. After graduation she worked several different jobs until 1943 when she started working for Spaulding Pulp and Paper which was purchased by the Los Angeles Times and Publishers Paper, Co. In 1946 she married Edward A. Day, and they started a farming business in West Linn that was run by the family for 50 years until they sold to developers which became Cascade Summit. Her greatest enjoyment was doing accounting work, especially in the timber department, retiring in 1988. Her husband passed away in February of 1995. Surviving and left to honor her life are: her daughter-in-law Beth Day; grandchildren, Kristen and Kim; sisters, Albina Jolisse of Keizer and Nancy Hess of Federal Way, WA; brother John of Seattle and several nieces and nephews. Her daughter Marilyn died in infancy. A Private Entombment was held at Mountain View Cemetery, Oregon City. Arrangements are in the care of Attrell's Newberg Funeral Chapel, a Golden Rule Funeral Home. Online condolences may be made at www.attrells.com

“*Julia was my mom's table mate at Avamere. She was the sweetest lady and filled my heart with joy for the short period of time I knew her. When my mom passed away last July, she was there to hug me and made me feel loved in a time of such sorrow for me. She loved our little dog and I took her to visit her in her room a few times. She missed her cat. She spent my last birthday with me and my mom and my son and husband in the banquet room at Avamere and just made some of my last memories with my mom fun and a joy. She spoke so fondly of her granddaughter and family. She adored you all so very much and was very proud. I didn't even really know her but she sure did fill my heart. She will be missed. To her family, whom I do not know, you are in my thoughts and prayers and my deepest sympathies are extended to you in this difficult time. It was an honor to have met her.....
