“ My Aunt June was always my favorite Aunt growing up as a kid because on ever birthday she would send me a Birthday card with $5.00 in it. Fast forward in life I learned that my mom Lola and June would talk to each other practically every weekend and was each other's best friend. After my mom Lola passed away, Aunt June became my new best friend and was always there for me. We could always count on each other to make a very special call on February 25. That is the birth date of her sister and her best friend and my mom. The last time we talked was on September 9th, several times she had told me she was ready to go.

We all lost our best friend when she passed, but let's all be happy for her because she gets to be with other's that have missed her too.
