“ Karen Scott & I were friends all 4 years of high school. Karen lived a block from me. We walked to high school together. I married and moved from Newberg. I knew her mom Zella but never knew her dad or remember him.

Gary Scott was older. Melvin Scott and brother Roger Currier were friends.

The last time I saw Karen was at St Paul. We talked about going to our high school reunion. I was living in Woodburn at that time. Rest well Karen - you were a good friend.

“ I've known Karen for about 25 years. I worked for her at Al's and have stayed in touch ever since. I considered her part of my family. I will miss her laugh and great sense of humor. I loved chatting with her, we would talk about dogs or who took the most recent fall and what part of the body we bruised. Karen would laugh at me and say I was too young to be falling like that. My biggest regret is that I didn't find more time to spend with her. I will miss her terribly but know she is in a much better place happy and pain free. My deepest sympathy to her family and friends

“ Sorry to hear about Karen. She was a huge part of my life as starting back in the early 70"s I worked at Al"s. My friend Tony Rahier and I spent hours hanging with Karen at the house, off to chinese dinner, off to friends etc. and we always had a ball. She was the one I went to when I was a teen and she always said and did the right thing and was the voice of reason which I would not accept from my parents . Years later I found out of course she was in "cahoots" with my parents (Worth & Mary Williamson) the whole damn time, Ha! She helped shape me/guide me/teach me in those nasty teen years and I dare say I turned out reasonably well! Last time I saw Karen was in the late 90"s (before I moved away) and we had a good laugh because she had seen me from a distance and was in awe of my cute little pot bellied pig I had with me and it was then she noticed it was just a super chubby weiner dog! She was so flustered and start giggling (as hard as she tried NOT to!) so hard she about fell over. So yes, a celebration of Karen"s life and how she changed so many lives for the better is her legacy. Karen was truly the hot diggity bomb and loved and missed by many.
