

Keri Ann Sinner

June 27, 1997 - June 2, 2020

Keri Ann Sinner passed away on June 2, 2020 in Newberg, Oregon.

Keri Ann Sinner was born on June 27, 1997 in Aberdeen, Washington to father Ryan Sinner and mother Sarah Tolomei. Keri was a free spirited, fun loving, positive child that only grew as Keri grew.

Keri graduated from McMinnville High School in 2016 with aspirations to be an auto mechanic. She enrolled into college courses on-line to further her education to be able to pursue her dreams.

Keri had a gypsy soul who loved to draw and design her own one of a kind body art. She spent her free time barefoot on the beaches concocting her next poem to express her heart and soul with her eccentric, straight forward, quirky demeanor. Keri also loved to skate board, going fishing, camping, riding ATVs, haunted houses and working on vehicles of any kind.

Keri's family meant everything to her. Her brothers and sisters, she kept as close as she could while living in different states. Keri would give the shirt off her back or the shoes off her feet; if she wore any half the time. She always saw the best in everyone and everything while fighting her own tribulations in life. She still gave all she had to give to those who needed it. Keri Ann will be greatly missed and loved by all whose lives she enriched. She always said, "Your now can make your future."

Keri Sinner is preceded in death by her grandmother Voletta Harvey, grandfather Kenneth Sinner, aunt Lora Sinner, cousin Andy Sinner and brother Kenny Kramer.

Keri is survived by her father Ryan Sinner (Tracy Kubas), mother Sarah Tolomei, sisters and brothers; Bianca Barnett (Cain Barnett), Matthew Burnell, Ryanne Sinner, Ashley Sinner, Maygan Sinner, Emilee Sinner, Jade Floyd, Sage Floyd, Andrew Sinner, Racelynn Tolomei, Savannah Crocker, Austin Crocker, Dustin Weber, uncle Jason Sinner, aunts; Lynnete Tammy Craft, Tonya Massingale, Tagen Johnson, step-grandmother Lynda Kubas, cousins; Lily, Claire, Kohl, Anthony and niece Emery. No more tears. No more suffering. I know that God has you in His loving hands and you will be waiting for me at the shiny gates. Until then sister... I will honor your memory always.

Hey Ryan, I'm not sure if you remember me. I worked for Cooper Hollow, I was the one that brought her new born baby all the time for Keri. I was the one who got the stay in the hotel at the beach with her. I'm not sure how I would find the photo but on her old phone is a photo of her on agate beach, I took that. That was a beautiful day with her.

Keri lived in a group home with my daughter and other young women. We got to know sweet Keri. She was so caring of others and was fun to be around. Keri always greeted us when we came and took time to sit and talk with us. Keri tried to better herself and her future through continuing education. Keri was a bright light here on Earth and I know that she is a bright light in Heaven.

“ To my sweet girl, my punkin. I didn't get to be your mom for long enough- only a few short years. By the time we met you had been dealt so much hurt and hardships you never should have had to endure, yet you still let me in to your heart. You didn't have to- we both know how hard you tried not to- but I'm just as stubborn as you- I could track you down better than the FBI- and I'd do it a thousand times over if it would bring you back just one more time. Beyond your tough exterior I saw a brilliantly smart, strong, funny, caring, and stunningly beautiful young lady. You had to work harder than just about anyone I ever met to accomplish your dreams. You had so much love to give and I pray you know how much I loved you and was your biggest fan. Even when you couldn't believe in yourself- I did. You had such a tender and caring heart- always wanting others to be happy. You were creative, a big dreamer, a hard worker, hilariously funny and my heart absolutely adored yours. I know your free spirit is truly free now, no more heart aches or pains, you are free of your hurts. I will miss you forever my sweet girl- until we meet again. Xoxoxo
