Kyle, one of our brightest lights and kindest souls is now at peace and is rejoicing with our beloved Lord. Kyle was a devoted Mother, loving wife, and friend. Kyle retired from Hazelbrook middle school, a job she loved and cherished for the many ways she could help kids and the community. Kyle's greatest joy in life was her family which also included Teresa, Katy, Cassie, all of our son's friends and most everyone she knew. Kyle had a Loving servant heart and she freely shared it with you the first time she met you. Kyle loved the Lord and loved her church and was active in many areas over the years from mission trip chaperone to Sunday school teacher to friend.

Kyle shined brightest around her three boys. She enthusiastically supported her son's activities, performances and passions. music, art, plays, concerts, baking and even a few sports or just hanging out and being there for them. Kyle delighted in watching them grow into strong confident men with families of their own. Kyle and George who were high school sweethearts had a wonderful fairy tale life. “ Kyle was my best friend in elementary school at Newland for the few years we hung out together. I even named my son Kyle. Loved the name! I had been searching for her the past few years and am now so saddened to find out she has passed on to be with our Lord. I guess I'll have to wait to see her in Heaven! May God bless her family and give them peace and comfort.

“ Kyle was such a wonderful person to watch when singing in the Voices of Hope choir. You could tell how much she loved what she was doing and the fact that she was sharing it with George. I never knew her to personify anything except a gracious, loving, and appreciative woman who truly allowed her Christian faith and love of her family and friends to shine out of her through her smile. God is assembling a choir of angels and I know that Kyle is there...singing...until the rest of the choir here on earth comes to join her. I am truly sorry for your loss. Kathy Van Hecke

“ While Kyle was an amazing woman in her own right, the finest tribute I can think of is found in the lives of the great family she leaves behind for now. Her sons always always always spoke highly of her. She was never without a smile or a kind word and that trait extends to the personalities of her husband and sons. Kyle simply cared for everyone. She was the leaven in the bread, always uplifting and making things better because she was there. Take care wonderful Hetu family. You all have brightened the world of the Orme family.
