

Laura Joanne Cooper

May 27, 1948 - March 23, 2020

Laura Joanne Cooper was born in Portland, Oregon on May 27, 1948 and passed on March 23, 2020 in Newberg, Oregon. She had been very ill for several years.

Laura lived much of her early life in the Newberg area spending a few years in Laurelwood, Oregon. She loved traveling with her husband Bill. She was a people person and loved her friends and family. She worked many years for Tektronix/Xerox in QC.

She attended Laurelwood Academy. Laura and Bill married in June of 1972, having almost forty-eight wonderful years together. They spent much of their marriage in Tigard and Sherwood, Oregon.

She was preceded in death by her parents Lauras and Pearl Hill. She is survived by four siblings; Patricia Haines, Jim Hill, John Hill, and Mary Bailey. She is also survived by her loving husband Bill.

Information on services or celebration of life, will follow at a later date.

Through this site, we invite you to share your thoughts and fond memories with her family.

“ Laura was my cousin Bill's wife. She seemed like a sister. She was caring, interesting, sharing and fun loving. I remember her laughter and smile. Laura and Bill were marriage partners for over 40 years and friends every day of their shared life. They truly loved and supported one another and each other's family.

We took annual trips to the Oregon coast which I always looked forward to. It started as a celebration of our Mother's Birthdays and has continued as an annual cousins trip. I always enjoyed meeting Bill and Laura. Looked forward to a fun relaxing time. I will treasure our last beach trip to Ocean Shores.

Laura had a gentle and kind spirit. She was generous and fun loving. She loved bling and wore it well. I miss her. It's not the same. Her passing has left me with many fond memories.

“ She was "Aunt Laura" to us. Laura and Bill would make a trip to see family in northern Washington every year. Staying connected to family was very important to her. Sweet, kind with a dash of funny! Good memories we all shared at the Mexican Restaurant we would always go to and visit. We already miss her. Danny (Laura's nephew) & Shannon “ Laura celebrated family and friends with special events, presents and balloons.

My folks were recipients of her loving care - holidays, birthdays and just a spur-of-the-moment visit. And when we were in town, Laura would often meet us with a gift in hand.

We will always remember her loving ways.
